DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Group I, claim(s) 1-4, drawn to an adsorbent.

Group II, claim(s) 5, drawn to a method of making an adsorbent.

Group III, claim(s) 6, drawn to an apparatus for making an adsorbent.

The inventions listed as Groups I, II, and III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group I lacks a common feature with group III and therefore no common technical feature exists.

Lack of unity of invention may be directly evident "a priori," that is, before considering the claims in relation to any prior art, or may only become apparent "a posteriori," that is, after taking the prior art into consideration. For example, independent claims to A + X, A + Y, X + Y can be said to lack unity a priori as there is no subject matter common to all claims.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

During a telephone conversation with Allen Shiavelli with ANTONELLI, TERRY, STOUT & KRAUS, LLP on 10/02/2008 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of a method of making an adsorbant, claim 5. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 1-4, and 6 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Rejoining Practice

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained.

Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Status of Application

Claims 1-6 are pending. The elected claim 5 is presented for examination. The non-elected claims 1-4 and 6 are withdrawn in lieu of restriction requirement.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 5,488,021 (DeLiso).

DeLiso teaches a method of making and adsorbent comprising providing mixture comprising carbonaceous material powder (activated carbon), inorganic material powder (clay), and an binder (cellulose type). All of which are blended and mixed with water (column 1 line 64 and column 5 line 46). The adsorbent mixture is continuously extruded through a mold (honeycomb die) (column 1 line 41 and column 6 line 30). DeLiso further teaches finishing the uncured adsorbent by drying the extruded adsorber (column 6 line 34).

It is well known that the process of extrusion inherently comprises continuously forcing a fluidic material through a mold or die in a direction away from the extruder.

During this process cavities preliminary to the die (i.e. a detour) are completely filled with the fluidic material before the material passes through the die.

Dies used to form a honeycomb structure inherently comprise a plurality of elongated cylindrical pins of the desired diameter of the passages in the extruded honeycomb extrusion. The extrusions produce by these types of dies will have parallel fluid passages defined by an intermediate peripheral wall. This inherency is well evidenced by US 6,206,675 (DeVier, see PTO-892).
